

Term One Overview 2026: Vicious Vikings

English

- In Reading, the children will recap on answering retrieval and inference questions to support their comprehension.
- Recap on I.S.P.A.C.E.D and Alan Peat Sentence types to make our writing exciting.
- Recap on basic punctuation types previously taught
- Write our own Anglo Saxon diary!
- Write a Viking myth.

Maths

- To read, write, order, compare and round increasingly large numbers up to 1,000,000.
- Read Roman numerals up to 1000.
- Using a range of addition and subtraction methods with increasingly large numbers.
- Continuing to focus on the times table scheme.

French

- To be able to have a basic conversation.
- To be able to count up to 10.
- To be able to identify range of colours.

Music

- Learning about the use of music in battle.
- Composing and performing their own Viking War March

RE

- Understand how the teaching of the Gurus move Shikhs from dark to light.
- To understand the importance of Guru Nanak.

PE

- Multi-skill sports
- Invasion games—netball
- Ball and rackets sports—tennis

PSHE

- To understand how to compromise.
- To understand how to be a good friend.
- Thinking about what it means to be assertive.

Art/DT

- Create our own Viking Longboat out of clay including shields and a prowhead.
- To sew a sail with a design and then attach it to the Viking Longboat.

History

- To compare different responses by Anglo-Saxon kings to the Viking invasion.
- To understand what daily Viking life involved.
- To understand the importance of King Alfred the Great.
- Use historical evidence from the burial at Sutton Hoo to make assumptions.

Science

- Exploring and comparing the different properties of materials.
- Exploring how different properties make the materials best suited for certain uses.
- Understand that some materials will dissolve in water.

Computing

- To create our own avatars based on their own photos and explore ways that they can communicate online.
- To understand what a system is including searching for information using a database catalogue.
- To learn how to refine their website searching skills.

Books at the heart of our curriculum topic: How to Train Your Dragon by Cressida Cowell